1. The court received evidence and opinions from the participants.
2. The court has determined by clear and convincing evidence that emancipation is:

in the best interest of the minor. The court finds that the petitioner is capable of assuming adult responsibilities and living independently.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

The minor is declared emancipated.

As an emancipated minor, the minor may enter into contracts, buy and sell property, sue or be sued, retain his or her own earnings, borrow money for any purpose (including education), and obtain health care without parental consent.

The Petitioner is not considered an adult for purposes of the criminal laws of the state or for specific constitutional or statutory age requirements regarding voting, use of alcoholic beverages, possession of tobacco or firearms, and other health and safety regulations relevant to the minor because of the minor's age.

This Order of Emancipation terminates parental responsibilities from this date forward. This Order of Emancipation does not terminate parental responsibilities that accrued before the date of this order.

not in the best interest of the minor. The petition is denied.
